

NOTICE OF WORKSHOP

THERMAL INSULATION – PROPOSED REGULATIONS

The Bureau of Electronic and Appliance Repair, Home Furnishings and Thermal Insulation will conduct a workshop to discuss the Thermal Insulation Proposed Regulations. The standards for insulating materials were last revised in 1981. Many new insulating materials or combinations of materials and forms have been developed since this time. The proposed standard will consider these new insulation products and once adopted will allow new products to be included in our Directory of Certified Insulation.

Please join us at the following workshop:
